DATA PROTECTION NOTICE

Sarum St Michael Educational Charity

Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the "GDPR").

Who are we?

Sarum St Michael Educational Charity is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

How do we process your personal data?

Sarum St Michael Educational Charity complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- (i) To process grant applications;
- (ii) To administer payment of grants;
- (iii) To maintain our own accounts and records;
- (iv) To share your date of application, name, post code, purpose of the requested award and the sum that you are requesting with other members of the Association of Church College Trusts in order to detect fraudulent or otherwise undisclosed multiple grant applications to the Trusts.

What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Processing is necessary to enable Sarum St Michael Educational Charity to pursue the following legitimate interests: to make decisions on whether to award grants; to administer the payment of grants; to maintain financial records; to detect fraudulent or otherwise undisclosed multiple applications.

Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential, and will be shared only with other members of the Association of Church College Trusts, and only to the extent and for the purposes described above. We will not share your data with other third parties without your consent. We may occasionally wish to place information about a grant recipient on our website; we shall not do so without seeking the recipient's express consent in advance.

How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep your personal data for no longer than reasonably necessary, for a period of six years, in order to administer the payment of grants, maintain financial records and allow decisions on future applications to be informed by knowledge of any earlier applications from the applicant.

Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: - the right to request a copy of personal data which the Sarum St Michael Educational Charity holds about you;

the right to request that the Sarum St Michael Educational Charity corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;

the right to request that your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Sarum St Michael Educational Charity to retain such data;

the right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;

the right to object to the processing of personal data;

the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use before beginning the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

Contact Details
